Conditions for Reproduction

The user agrees to the following conditions:

1. The requestor may not share/give images with other individuals except for the original requested purpose. The digital image remains the property of the Douglas County Historical Society. If the requestor wishes to utilize the images in any manner different from the initially requested usage, they must contact Watkins Museum of History for permission.

2. The Material May Be Protected by Copyright Law (Title 17, U.S. Code): The requestor assumes all responsibility for conforming to copyright and libel laws. Duplication by the DCHS/WM in no way transfers either copyright or property rights, nor does it constitute permission to publish in excess of "fair use" or to display materials. Reproduction is permitted only from materials owned by DCHS/WM.

3. Indemnification: The user agrees to hold harmless the DCHS/WM, its employees, officers or designates, from any and all costs, expense, damage and liability arising from any dispute related to rights.

4. Addition of Material to Other Museums/Institutions: The requestor affirms that copies provided may not be added to the collections of other repositories without express written permission.

5. Image Manipulation: The DCHS/WM's primary interest is to protect the integrity of the original. Images may be cropped at the edges or a portion may be selected from within a photograph, however, an explanatory statement must be added describing any changes. Any manipulation of the materials beyond this must be approved by the Director, WM.

6. Copy of Publication: As a part of the agreement of reproduction permission, the DCHS/WM requests that upon publication one copy of the publication either in the electronic or hard copy format to be sent to the Watkins Museum of History at no cost to the museum or historical society.
