

Embattled Lawrence Vol. 3: Building the City

Help make history by becoming a Corporate Sponsor of the Embattled Lawrence book project!

In 2023, a team of volunteers led by Dennis Domer released Embattled Lawrence Vol. 2: The Enduring Struggles for Freedom, published by the Watkins Museum of History. This long-awaited history book remained the #1 bestseller for five weeks at The Raven Bookstore during the summer of 2023. The team is eager to launch Vol. 3: Building the City, but we need your help! As a community-led project, every dollar raised to create the book comes from generous patrons like you. All proceeds from the book sales go towards the Watkins Museum of History.

$10,000+: Community Stakeholder

- Logo or name listed in the book's acknowledgment page located on the inside front cover
- Logo or name listed on the Watkins Museum's landing page for Embattled Lawrence, includes a clickable URL to your website
- Business or name mentioned during programs associated with Embattled Lawrence Vol. 3
- Business or name listed on all promotional materials
- Logo or name included in four e-newsletters (sent to 2,300 subscribers)
- Four free copies of Embattled Lawrence Vol. 3

$5,000+: Community Sponsor

- Business listed in the book's general credits section
- Logo or name listed on the Watkins Museum's landing page for Embattled Lawrence
- Business or name mentioned during programs associated with Embattled Lawrence Vol. 3
- Logo included in two e-newsletters (sent to 2,300 subscribers)
- Four free copies of Embattled Lawrence Vol. 3

$2,500+= Community Leader

- Business listed in the book's general credits section
- Logo included in two e-newsletters (sent to 2,300 subscribers)
- Two free copies of Embattled Lawrence Vol. 3

All checks should be written to the Douglas County Historical Society, with "Embattled Lawrence" written on the memo line. The Watkins Museum of History is operated by the Douglas County Historical Society, a 501(c)3 organization. All sponsorships are tax deductible to the fullest extent allowed by law. Questions? Contact the Watkins at 785-841-4109 or info@watkinsmuseum.org. Federal tax ID 48-0777475